

SAFAA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MURROUGH O'BRIEN

Appointed to the Board, November 2017.

As Head of Liquidnet Australia, Murrough is responsible for growing the domestic membership in the firm's Australian trading venue. Liquidnet is an institutional block trading network that connect the world's leading asset managers to one of the largest pools of liquidity for equities and fixed income globally.

Murrough has worked in the industry for over 16 years in both London and Sydney and has a broad depth of experience in electronic trading, market micro-structure, algorithmic trading and technological innovation within equities markets. Prior to Liquidnet Murrough was Head of TradingScreen Australia & New Zealand and before that was Head of Electronic Execution for Australia and NZ at Citigroup where he helped steer the franchise through the market integrity rule changes that allowed multiple markets in Australia.
