Scott Morrison and Kelly O'Dwyer “complete the trifecta” say stockbrokers

“The appointments by the new Prime Minister, Malcolm Turnbull of Scott Morrison as Treasurer and Kelly O’Dwyer as Assistant Treasurer “complete the trifecta” for members of the Stockbrokers Association,” says Association CEO Andrew Green.

“Not only do we have a PM with deep experience in Investment Management but a Treasurer with a demonstrable ability to deliver reform, and Assistant Treasurer with a nimble and agile mind which will equip her well to understand the cost to Australia of compliance and red tape in a global market place.”
